A TERRIBLE COUCH. A TERRIBLE COUGH. " Dear Sir .- I am a poor hand at expressing my feeting, but I should like to thank you Your lozenges Since I had the operation of 'Trachetomy' (the sume as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive; performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so bad at times that it quite exhausted me. The inneus, which was very copious and hard, has

UTTERLY UNRIVALLED. UTTERLY UNRIVALLED. The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry it appears that the benefit from using Reating's Cough Lozenges is understated. The operation was a specially severe one and was performed by the specialist, Dr. H. T. Butlin, of St. Bartholomew's Hospital. Since the operation the only means of relief in the tran of those Lozenges. Be successful are they that one affords immediate benealt, although from the nature of the case the throat irritation is intense. WEIGHT IN GOLD. WEIGHT IN GOLD. I should long since have been dead, but for your Lozengen-then are worth their weight in gold. I will gladly see and tell anyone what a splendid cough re-mody they are." HONGRONG, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1893.

CLUBLAND was for centuries a terra inby certain male persons in the time of Elizabeth, the great Queen du-Per Orestes, at 5 p.m., on Thursday, the ring whose illustrious reign several other things were 'discovered' which have helped to make life worth living. When Shaket seare, Raleigh, Ben Jon-Per Kutsang, at 2.30 p.m., on Saturday, son. Beaumont and Fletcher used to meet in the Mermaid Tavern in Fleet Cosmorolitan Cur,-Street and made that place a kind of club, or when some time afterwards Rure Ben Jonson' founded another club at the Devil Tovern, there was probably not much feminine curiosity as regards the nature and objects and doings of these institutions. The members met simply for convivial purposes, and to enjoy an occusional feast of reason and flow of soul.' These socalled 'clubs' were not places of everyday resort. They were intended chiefly to afford facilities for the gathering together of men of eminence in the domains of literature and art. But the club idea 'caught on,' and by-and-by all kinds of clubs came into existence, of all sorts and conditions of men.

fully closed against ladies. It would perhaps be an injustice to the ladies to say that their exclusion caused them much annoyance. Had clubs been open to them from the first, the privilege thereby accorded to them-if it could be called a privilege-would probably not have been greatly enjoyed. But Woman does not now concern herself with 'privileges'; she has discovered that she has Rights, one of which is the Right of establishing a club for herself. fler Rights enable her to appear on an equal footing with male persons at the Bar, in the dissecting room and in many other places where men used to have it all their own way. In fact the Woman of the West has arisen in her might and declared to the world that there is nothing that men do but she may do also, if she chooses. To this we heartily say 'Amen.' There are, however, we regret to say, certain things which do not seem always quite 'in her line.' One of these is 'running a club.' Of course men's clubs in these days are not places in which one expects to meet Shakespeares and Jonsons, and the feast - of reason-and-flow-of-soul-ideais not conspicuous in their list of objects. They are, as a rule, institutions of a severely and even solemnly respectable character, in which the 'Mermaid' or the 'Devil' crowd would find themselves not at all at home Still, they are useful to men. But we have some difficulty in conceiving the uses to which a club can be put by ladies. They might use it simply as a restaurant, but then a restaurant is not a club. We should be surprised if they wanted to have a billiard-room or a bowling allay, although, we should find it extremely difficult to tormulate any reasonable objection to their indulging in the harmless pastimes for which these places are provided. Of course it is impossible to conceive that they could think of having a 'bar'-that is to say, anything that could be called a right down regular bar, with its implements for the manufacture of 'cocktails' and all the rest. All these things may come later on, when civilisation advances a bit and of what are really her Rights. At the to be, 'Shall there be a smokingroom.' According to a London corres-For the smoking ladies (who may be called the progressive party) a suitable room was provided, and now the nonsmoking ladies (or conservative party) object to its existence. It might be taken as presumptive evidence that as the smeking-room was part of the original design of the club-house, the objection now raised is not to smoking per se. It appears that, as a matter of fact, the smoking-room is the place in it on account of their inability the plants to attain their full size, vigour. to stand smoke. It is undoubtedly a sad state of affairs. 'The lady ...$4.00 numbers, and, being in possession of a comfortable privilege, they do not see why they should forego it. If the smoke is disagreeable to the nonsmoker, they say, the non-smoker can stay out of the room; and there is no answering that argument.' The argument may be sound but it is somewhat cruel. A lady may be excused for not baving progressed so far as to see that by smoking a cigarette she is, as it were, carrying forward the torch of civilisation, but surely that cannot be regarded as a reason why her share of This work is alike interesting to the gossip should be curtailed. As a step towards a compromise we would suggest that the non-smoking ladies be
